Welcome !

On behalf of the Alabama Bandmasters Association, I welcome you to the All-State Band Festival Concert.

We thank the parents and directors for the support of your children and students, for without this we would not be here today. The investment of time, money and energy has paid off in a grand way as your child and student is among the top ten percent of instrumental students in Alabama.

The Alabama Bandmasters Association is proud of you, your child and the band directors for making those sacrifices necessary to get here today. I hope that the All-State Festival has been a positive experience for you all.

Chuck Eady, President
Alabama Bandmasters Association

THANKS!!!!

The membership of the Alabama Bandmasters Association would like to express our deep appreciation to Auburn University, and especially to Dr. Rick Good, Dr. Doug Rosener, Dr. Corey Spurlin and all of the Band Staff and students, whose efforts and old fashioned hard work have made this Festival possible.

ALABAMA ALL-STATE BAND GUEST CONDUCTORS

THOMAS V. FRASCHILLO, DMA

Thomas V. Frascillo has served as catalyst and mentor for the teaching profession for 43 years. His high standards of performance have had a sustained influence on ensembles at every level, and his performances serve as models in both the professional or academic arena. Through his recordings and his publishing, conducting, and lecturing in the United States, Europe, Asia, and Australia, he is considered an international musician/scholar. His publications, a translation from the original Italian of Alessandro Vessella's Studi di strumentazione (Instrumentation Studies) published by BMG Ricordi, Milan, and La Tecnica dell'orchestra contemporanea (The Technique of Contemporary Orchestration), by Alessandro Casella and Vittorio Mortari, published by BMG Ricordi have put his name in music libraries of the entire English speaking world. The translation of the Casella/Mortari makes available an English version of the most significant music publication on writing for instruments .

after the Second World War. Dr. Frascillo serves as a frequent conductor and lecturer in Italy as an American scholar. His most recent appearances in Italy have been with La Banda dell'esercito/The Italian Army Band in Rome. One of his most significant engagements with them occurred in the summer of 2002 and signaled a very important milestone for the Italian Army in that Dr. Frascillo was the first American born conductor to have been invited to appear in a public performance by what is considered Italy's most prestigious military concert band. The concert with Dr. Frascillo conducting was the opening concert of the International Festival in Spoleto, "The Festival of Two Worlds, Festival dei due mondi." His appearance was enormously significant for conductors of bands in that the opening performance featured such international artists as Gian Carlo Menotti, the renowned composer who organized and began the event, the Orchestra and Giuseppe Verdi Chorus of Milan with Riccardo Chailly conducting, and the famous Italian actress, Claudia Cardinale whose work was being displayed in a film retrospective. Finally, in Italy Dr. Frascillo often serves as a member of the giuria (judging panel) for many international festivals, most notably the Concorso Internazionale di Composizione "R. Marengo" di Novi Ligure, and the Concorso Internazionale di Composizione Originale per Banda di Corciano.

Aside from Dr. Frascillo's work in Italy, he is often engaged throughout the continents of Asia and Australia. The Melbourne, Australia, Summer Youth Music Program has invited Dr. Frascillo to be guest conductor for their week long summer session for four years. In addition the Australian Band and Orchestra Directors Association (ABODA) has invited him to lecture and to adjudicate at their large ensemble festivals. Dr. Frascillo's other work in the Pacific Rim includes having recently served as clinician and guest conductor of the Central Armed Forces Band in Singapore and conductor of the Singapore All-College Band sponsored by the Wind Band Association of Singapore. Prior to his Singapore engagement, Dr. Frascillo served as Artistic Director for the weeklong Winter Band Festival at Disney, Hong Kong.

Dr. Frascillo has devoted a significant amount of his career to the education of young people in Mississippi. For example his ten-year tenure at Meridian High School was highlighted by an invitation to perform at the Midwest Clinic in Chicago, the nation's oldest and most prestigious music event for wind and string educators. The invitation was only the second to have been given to a band from Mississippi.

Dr. Frascillo has attained a significant level in international leadership in that he serves as a past president of the prestigious American Bandmasters Association and of the world's largest organization for band directors, the National Band Association.

Dr. Frascillo will conduct the Alabama All-State Red Band.

DR. DAVID HOLSINGER

In 1999, award winning composer and conductor David R. Holsinger joined the faculty of Lee University, Cleveland, Tennessee. He is the inaugural conductor of the Lee Wind Ensemble and teaches composition, orchestration, and conducting. He holds degrees from Central Methodist University, University of Central Missouri, and the University of Kansas.

Dr. Holsinger's compositions have won four national competitions, including a two time ABA Ostwald Award. His works have also been finalists in the NBA and Sudler composition competitions. In the summer of 1998, Holsinger was featured as the HERITAGE VI composer during the Texas Bandmasters Association convention in San Antonio. This prestigious series celebrating American wind composers was founded in 1992 and had previously honored Morton Gould, Ron Nelson, Robert Jager, W. Francis McBeth, and Roger Nixon. An elected member of the American Bandmasters Association, Holsinger's recent honors include the Distinguished Music Alumni Award from Central Missouri State University, CIDA'S 1999 Director of the Year Citation, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia's Orpheus Award, the 2003 Distinguished Alumni Award from Central Methodist College, and the 2003 Excellence in Scholarship Citation from Lee University. Surrounding the premiere of the composer's EASTER SYMPHONY, Holsinger was honored by Gustavus Adolphus College with the awarding of an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters for lifetime achievement in composition and presented the Gustavus Fine Arts Medallion, the division's highest award.

Holsinger was one of eleven composers contributing a chapter in the GIA project entitled COMPOSERS ON COMPOSING FOR BAND. This projected 4 volume book venture is edited by Mark Camphouse and Volume I, which includes chapters from such notable composers as David Gillingham, Karel Husa, and W. Francis McBeth, among others, was released in December, 2002. A chapter concerning the music of David Holsinger is included in A COMPOSER'S INSIGHT: THOUGHTS, ANALYSIS AND COMMENTARY ON CONTEMPORARY MASTERPIECES FOR WIND BAND, VOL III, edited by Timothy Saltzman and published by Meredith Publications in 2006. In addition, Holsinger was the subject of a special article in the German music magazine, "Musik zum Lesen" in celebration of his 60th birthday in December, 2005. He has previously been featured in "Bl'sermusik" magazine, also a German publication. Biographical and commentary on Holsinger's works can be found in both 'The Heritage Encyclopedia of Band Music', Vol. I and III, and in Norman Smith's 'Program Notes for Band'.

In the past twelve years, Holsinger has served as Visiting Distinguished Composer in Residence at eleven American colleges or universities, including the Acuff Chair of Excellence in the Creative Arts at Austin Peay State University, Clarksville, Tennessee.

In addition to his university duties, Holsinger spends much of his energies as a guest composer and conductor with All State organizations, professional bands, and university ensembles throughout the United States. When not composing or conducting, he models HO scale trains.

Dr. Holsinger will conduct the Alabama All-State White Band.

DR. GREG GRUNER

Dr. Greg Gruner, Professor of Music, serves as the Director of Bands and Chair of the Department of Music at the University of South Alabama in Mobile, AL. His junior high, high school, and collegiate ensembles have been recognized consistently for their excellence in performance at the regional and national levels. Currently, Dr. Gruner conducts the University of South Alabama Wind Ensemble, teaches instrumental conducting, applied low brass, and has served as the Chair of the Department of Music since 2002. The Department of Music has experienced tremendous growth in all its undergraduate programs, the most recent being the addition of a marching band program, during his administrative tenure.

Dr. Gruner is a member of the Music Educators National Conference, College Band Directors National Association, the National Band Association, and formerly the International Association of Jazz Educators. He is a member of the Phi Beta Mu National Bandmaster Fraternity, the Golden Key National Honor Society, the Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society, and is an honorary member of the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Kappa Kappa Psi, and Pi Kappa Lambda music fraternities.

In addition, he served as an advisor to the Mayor's Task Force for the Culture and Arts in Mobile and works closely with a number of arts organizations in Mobile and Baldwin counties. Dr. Gruner remains a popular guest conductor, trombonist, adjudicator, clinician, consultant, and composer/arranger for concert, marching, and jazz ensembles throughout the United States.

SEAN O'LOUGHLIN

Sean O'Loughlin (b.1972) is a fresh voice and a rising name in the music world. His music is characterized by vibrant rhythms, passionate melodies, and colorful scoring.
